Week-end Romance in Morro Bay

Story and (most) photos by Michael Kramer, Club President

It was time to take my girlfriend for a weekend adventure on the bike. Morro Bay seemed like a good distance with lots of attractions. We left on a Saturday evening around 7:30pm (bit late). Took Hwy 1 as much as we could.

Arrived in Guadalupe just before 9 pm, just in time for a late night dinner at the Far Western restaurant. Great steaks! Seriously, the steak was 2+ inches tall. They seemed to be having a problem with gnats. I killed 7 gnats over the course of dinner. (continued on page 2)

Had a reserved room in Morro Bay one block from the beach. This is the first time I've been to Morro Bay. Looks like they are known for Mermaids. We saw them in statues and photos everywhere. I took a photo of the sexy plaque I like.

It was a windy morning, which was good for the Annual Kite Festival happening on the beach. It was relaxing to watch kids and adults having fun flying some very unusual kites.

On the way back, we stopped off in Orcutt. If you've not been there, it's a neat hidden secret of Santa Barbara County. We stopped off at a western bar called ELMER'S. There was an old man chewing tobacco outside the front door, classic! He personally welcomed us into the bar, even though he was just a patron himself.

This was one of those trips where you are not gone too long but you feel like it was several days. It was the perfect weekend get-a-way!
